

Hanna Augenstein

international speaker born and raised in Germany

Hanna excites people in 2 seconds.

She doesn't need many words to make people listen.

Her energetic being and smile catch you in a moment.

Hanna turned her whole life around in just 4 weeks.

Hanna grew up so poor that she often did not know what to eat the same day. Little Hanna went begging for food from others to give to her family. And she always received food. Few people can resist a little girl asking for food. NOBODY can resist when Hanna asks. Already as a cute girl she had this smart radiance around her. She studied and built a career with no support at all. Then eventually she built a successful business in just 4 weeks. From zero euros to 1000s.

Today she owns a Coaching Company. She teaches others how to be bold in order to reach their dreams, to step into their real truth and stop pretending that everything is fine when actually they are suffering from going to work or not doing what they love. Hanna is taking people by the hand when going through challenges as she is aware of the rewarding quality of a challenge. Hanna knows that without all her challenges, she would not be the prosperous and shining Woman she is today. And so she made Challenges part of her Life. Those which are exciting, a bit scary and helpful. To challenge people is also part of her Coaching philosophy. This has always been Hanna's true and inner passion: leading and supporting powerful and passionate human beings - this is her gift, her love and her life.

Hanna Augenstein is a high class Coach, Speaker, Mother, Entrepreneur & Visionary.
